A chara,

I hope you and your family are well and keeping safe as the restrictions begin to be lifted. Again, the feedback from teachers has been very positive regarding the children's work from home this week. The múinteoirí are very impressed with the Seesaw assignments. Well done boys & girls, keep up the hard work!

You may already be aware of this but it may be of interest to some parents & pupils. All major internet providers have committed to a number of measures to help people stay in touch and work from home during Covid 19. These include offering free/affordable unlimited broadband to customers. More details can be found at:

<https://www.dccae.gov.ie/en-ie/news-and-media/press-releases/Pages/Increased-Supports-from-Telecoms-Providers-during-Covid-19.aspx>

If you are looking for a nice way to talk to your child about the current circumstances, Axel Scheffler, the illustrator of the children's book The Gruffalo has worked on a book for children about the coronavirus. It can be downloaded for free on www.gillbooks.ie/AGuideToTheCoronavirus and is also on the school website under the 'Parents' tab.

Thank you to the Éabha (Rang a Cúig) who sent a picture of herself busy painting, well done Éabha and keep up the hard work!

Bhí comórtas Seachtain na Gaeilge ar siúl sa scoil roimh dúnadh na scoile agus anois ba mhaith liom an buaiteoir a fhógairt, bhuaigh Ciara Bracken i Rang a Cúig. Comhghairdeas agus maith thú Ciara!

Congratulations also to Ms.Rabbette who earlier this week released her brilliant single Redneck Woman, it can be downloaded from iTunes or Spotify.

Next Friday, 29th is a school holiday, so children will have a shorter timetable of work next week. I hope to have the school calendar for the 2020-2021 school year available shortly and I will notify you in due course.

Finally, if you would like to discuss something with me or a teacher, please email the school so that this can be arranged.

Le gach dea-ghuí,

Alan Plunkett and the teaching staff.
